

CINEMA STUDIES INSTITUTE
University of Toronto

THE NORMAN JEWISON FELLOWSHIP IN FILM STUDIES

Established in 1985, this $10,000 award recognizes an academically outstanding University of Toronto student graduating with a Specialist or Major in Cinema Studies, and proceeding to graduate study in film the following September. Eligible students should apply in the spring of their graduating year. Applications are due Monday, May 4, 2018.

Please fill out the following information:

Last Name: _____ First Name: _____

Student #: _____ Phone #: _____

Permanent Address: _____

Sessional Address: _____

Email: _____

College: _____

To apply for this award, applicants should also:

- Prepare a statement on a separate page (maximum one page long) outlining their plans for graduate study in film (course of study, school, length of program, etc.) and submit it with this application.
- Request two Cinema Studies faculty members to submit letters of recommendation directly to the Cinema Studies Undergraduate Program Office as part of their application.

Once your application and statement are complete, they can either be handed in to the Cinema Studies Undergraduate Office at IN-232AE, or can be submitted by email to cinema.studies@utoronto.ca, no later than May 4, 2018 at 5pm.

CINEMA STUDIES INSTITUTE
University of Toronto

Names of two Cinema Studies Faculty supporting this application and from whom letters of recommendation may be expected by May 4, 2018 at 5pm.

- 1. _____
- 2. _____

Date: _____ Signature of applicant: _____

Cinema Studies Faculty wishing to nominate a candidate: Faculty members wishing to nominate candidates for the scholarship should write a letter to the Scholarship Committee describing the nominee’s qualifications for the award. The nominated student must still submit an application, and arrange for a second letter of recommendation. All letters of nomination and recommendation, and applications must be submitted to the Undergraduate Office no later than the closing date stipulated above.